Examination policy

Our retake or proctored exams are only offered to individuals who have met one of the two following standards:

1. You have taken and failed a Servsafe exam for a certified food manager.
2. You have completed the Servsafe online certified food manager course and need to sit for an exam.

Refund Policy

1. Any refund request that is more than 6 months past the payment date will not be honored.
2. To request a refund, a request must be made (email/letter) in writing and a copy of receipt must be submitted. If the payment was made by credit/debit card, the processing fee cannot be refunded.
3. For businesses that pay with a business check, a refund can be requested 45 days after the check has been deposited.
4. If a Servsafe book has been issued to the registered attendee, NO refund will be processed until the book is returned.

Reschedule policy

1. Any reschedule request that is more than 6 months past the payment date will not be honored and the registration fee will be forfeited.
2. If a registered attendee misses an exam without notice, they will be required to contact our office to reschedule for the next consecutive exam date. If no contact is made before the next consecutive exam cutoff date, they will forfeit the exam registration fee.
3. If the Environmental Health Office is notified by the registered attendee that they are unable to attend their scheduled exam:
 - a. The registered attendee must schedule another exam within 90 days of the original exam date or forfeit the class fee.
 - b. If they have a Servsafe book and do not schedule the next consecutive course, they must return the Servsafe book.

Book checkout

- Once a previous class has finished, registered and paid attendees for the next consecutive class can come to our office to check out a Servsafe course book.
- Damaged books will not be returnable and must be paid for at the current cost from the manufacturer.

Study material

- An email address must be provided to receive study material ahead of the course. These are extra materials that will be distributed through emails as PDF files.
